ISO 9001:2008 is globally regarded as the most comprehensive body of standards on quality management systems and practices.

Vasathi Housing Ltd., known for developing affordable luxury housing projects with emphasis on quality and speed of execution, has been accorded ISO 9001:2008 certification (Quality Management System).

Today's customers are uncompromising when it comes to quality of homes or timely completion of projects, which places a high demand on a real estate company's ability to bring quality homes to market quickly.

Vasathi Housing Ltd. has embraced a quality ethos across all aspects of its business – from conceptualization to execution and handover, and had applied for the ISO certification to demonstrate the company's singular dedication to quality management.

ISO 9001:2008 is globally regarded as the most comprehensive body of standards on quality management systems and practices. It was established by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), an organization of 162 national standards institutes and the foremost authority on quality standards. Certification is dependent upon a quality management system that includes management responsibility, resource management, product realization, measurement, analysis and improvement.

"We're extremely proud of this ISO certification. It represents our continued dedication to adopting world-class business and quality processes systematic across our organization to exceed customer expectations," said P. V. Ravindra Kumar, CEO, Vasathi Housing Ltd.

Vasathi Housing Ltd's certification was issued by TÜV INDIA Private Ltd. TÜV INDIA was founded in Mumbai in 1989 and is one of the first certification organizations to open its doors in India. Today, the company is one of the most renowned organizations for certification, testing, and technical monitoring
